DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: Page 1 line 22, "tested an sorted" is not idiomatic language. Page 6 line 27, "gray shown in FIG. 6" should be –gray shown in FIG. 5-. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 29-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a & b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over any of JP411284278A to Toshiba Corp or USPN 6,420,245 to Manor or USPN 6,737,606 to Peng et al. The references disclose wafer dicing with both laser and saw. The intended use of plural laser beam application and subsequent sawing does not impart patentability to the claims.

Claims 16-21, 23-27, and 32-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over JP355046579A to Toshiba Corp in view of JP353002074A to NEC Home Electronics LTD and in view of USPN 6,586,707 to Boyle et al. Toshiba Corp describe dicing a wafer with a first laser scribe step and a second dicing saw or blade scriber cut step. NEC shows wafer scribing comprising a first wide scribe and a second narrow scribe. Boyle et al describe plural laser passes in the formation of a trough or slot. The instant claimed multiple laser passes would have been obvious at the time applicant's invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art because the final scribed work piece configuration is well known and has been performed since the 1970's and 1980's and because the current laser machining described by Boyle et al is known to precisely form slots using multiple passes.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The cited art pertains to the instant claimed scribing.
